

PARENTING FOR A PEACEFUL WORLD

Robin Grille

'In clear and compelling language Robin Grille explores the childhood origins of human action and choice, from its most violent to its most humane. This is the book that could save the world, if we can only pay attention.'

Jan Hunt, Director of The Natural Child Project

Imagine a world where war, tyranny, human rights abuses and ecological destruction are relics of the past. What if the means to create such a reality were in the hands of mothers and fathers, and all those involved in the care and education of children?

Parenting for a Peaceful World is a fascinating look at how parenting customs have shaped societies and major world events. It reveals how children adapt to different parenting styles and how these early experiences underpin the adults they become.

In this expansive book Robin Grille draws on revolutionary new research to argue that the safeguarding of children's emotional development is the key to creating a more peaceful and harmonious world.

Parenting for a Peaceful World is a book for parents, child health professionals, and adults learning to be whole again. It is a manifesto for policy-makers and a resource for teachers. If the findings outlined in these pages are put into practice, the result may be a revolution of peace, humanity, and a world beyond our imagining.

Robin Grille is a psychologist and psychotherapist with extensive experience working with individuals, couples and families, and teaching or facilitating groups. His work on child development, parenting issues and family relationships has been widely published in Australia, the United States, Canada, South Africa and Israel.

One dollar from the sale of each book in Australia will be donated to the Australian Breastfeeding Association.

Cover image: Children playing with Sunflowers, 1973, David Boyd

www.longmedia.com.au

Parenting/psychology

ISBN 1-921004-14-2

9 781921 004148

